Home just isn't home anymore. I had your that shirt, "Best Dog Ever" and that's what you were. From the moment we met until your last breath you were my boy. I have no idea why anyone could EVER give you up but I'm so glad they did and that fate drew us together. You were my bestest friend for 14 year. I hope that those 14 of your 16 were just the best ever in your eyes. I love you buddy. I have loved you always and I will love you forever. Your Dad and your fur siblings miss you too but not as much as Mommy does. We had a special thing going on didn't we. Thank you for the honor of being your Mommy. It was the best time of my life. Love, Mommy
