

Dorothy .

October 1, 2008 - August 1, 2025

Thank you, for the 17 wonderful years. The pain is unbearable. The bed and bowl is empty now the bowl, and the house feels so quiet. But my heart? it's still so loud with memories of you. I see your nose prints everywhere in the corners of the room , in the living room where you loved to walk, I miss the sound of your paws on the floor and the way you'd look at me with those eyes full of love. Sometimes I swear I can still feel you near me. My sweet Dorothy you were more than a pet. You were my confidant, my comfort, my best friend. You taught me about unconditional love, and now you are teaching me about loss. I don't know how to fill the space you left behind. I'll love you in every memory we made, in every moment we shared and in every beat of my heart . Until we meet again, my sweet Dorothy. I'll love you forever.
