This is a dedication for our sweet beautiful girl, Indigo. Thank you for being the star in our lives for 14 years. You were and will always be the glue to our family. You've left us with so many memories. You taught us the meaning of unconditional love. Thank you for bringing joy, laughter, love, and brightness into our lives. We miss everything about you from your bark, to your nice warm licks, your pleasant smile, we could go on forever. May you rest well in doggy paradise. We love you and will miss you forever!!!!

“ When I first met indigo I thought she was the sweetest cutest dog I’ve ever seen. I was so eager to pet her, but she was a little feisty so my sister decided she better hold her while I pet her. As I reached over her head to pet her, indigo almost took my middle finger off!!! 😭😭😭😭 she was a good dog. She was just trying to protecting her family. Indigo and I ended up having a really good relationship. I would be so excited to see indigo when I got into town. I’m so sorry for the loss of your furry family member. I know she loved you all just as much as you loved her. ❤️
