

Lady Avada Kaedavra

April 20, 2006 - August 1, 2020

She was spunky, she was trouble, she was our baby. Over her 14 years, She perfected the art of "The Snuggle." She was a Breed Ambassador, showing those who were "Scared of Evil Pitbulls" that it was just all hype. She loved everyone she came across and even more so if you had treats. She taught other rescues how to be "civilized and good couch potatoes." She was the perfect example of how to be the Bestest girl. Kaeda will be missed greatly and our hearts will never fully heal. Run free sweet girl, you deserve it.
