

Lily Horne

July 10, 2006 - July 31, 2020

Lily was sweet and loved being with people. She was tolerant of grandkids dressing her up and riding on her. She had a steel stomach that was able to eat EVERYTHING! She was Houdini, able to get into anything. One time she opened a latch to get out of the laundry room, sniffed out a Kit Kat bar in a bag, opened the Kit Kat, ate it, leaving the whole wrapper. Then she went back into the laundry room laid in her bed pretending she did nothing wrong!!!
