

Missy Zimmer

November 3, 2010 - April 23, 2026

Missy Zimmer, aka Misdemeanor, was brought into our lives when he met Elle one fateful evening in November of 2012, and passed peacefully in the arms of Kris and AJ on April 23rd, 2026. A Certified Cuddlebug Champion, Missy was dashing, daring, and mischievous, and deftly won the hearts and spirits of everyone he met. Missy experienced more than most cats - flying on a plane across the country, making friends with chickens and other wildlife, living in both urban and rural environments, and experiencing both hunger and a life of luxury. His favorite things include “crunchy” (read: frozen) grass, treats, shoulder and ear scratches, cardboard boxes he doesn’t fit in, and committing crimes. Missy leaves behind his adopted fur-sister Morrigan. He is preceded in death by his adopted fur-sister, Temperance, and will be sorely missed by the Zimmer family and anyone who had the pleasure of meeting him.

Missy was truly a Don Juan Casanova with a Van Gogh soul. Gentle, perceptive, and nurturing, Missy's love languages were Acts of Service and Words of Affirmation. He gave so much more than he asked for - his vocation was the love of his two children Elle and Josiah, and being the ambassador of his family home. A precocious youth, Missy spent his middle age on incredible cross country adventures, and after settling his girl into her new life in the North, he returned home to leisure in the South's hospitable weather and the loving arms of Kris and AJ. Missy, I'm going to miss your swoon-worthy attempts to romance me into a pet or an ear tickle, and your sweet heart. Rest in peace.
