

Nico

February 20, 2020 - February 20, 2020

Nico - nothing like your all-over body shake when you were happy, your trotting and prancing like a dressage horse ending with your classic pointer pose, your stubborn refusal to retrieve thrown sticks... just zooming on past us. How I usually ended up with a slither on the edge of the bed ... Your self-control with being made to wait for your treats, even when placed on your nose. How you looked after your cuddly toys was just amazing...and so good-natured with the kitties, even as they were eating your food or stealing your dog bed. Your human's miss you terribly.
