

Phoebe McNamara

February 23, 2022 - February 23, 2022

Sweet, shy, and skittish, Phoebe came into our lives via our back deck but left warm, loved, and in the home of the people who loved her. She asked for very little from anyone other than some head scratches, her favorite Sheba snack, and a soft blanket to cuddle on. We are sad to see her go, but have 14 years worth of memories and pictures of her fuzzy, orange body to keep with us for the rest of our lives. We love you, Phoebe. Thank you so much for choosing our house to be your home.
