

Tatum

March 2, 2009 - March 2, 2009

Tatum was an important part of my life and he had such a pure soul and love of everything and everyone around him. His sister Mei and I are heartbroken but he is no longer in pain and he had a good life and he knew he was loved. His death was sudden but I feel like a piece of myself is missing. The time we bonded together will always remain in my memory.
