

Truffles

September 8, 2005 - February 15, 2022

On today makes one whole month our baby has gained his wings. Truffles (Yorkie) is missed terribly, words cannot express our sadness. Even though he is in peace and no more suffering, he is still missed unconditionally. Our hearts are forever broken and our world is torn apart. There will never be another Truffles, no other baby can compare. I want him to know how much we loved him, he was our world, our everything. I miss him in the mornings, in the afternoons and at night, all day. I miss the hugs and kisses, he used to be on my zoom meetings at work, everyone knew him and loved him as much as we did. Rest well my "Sweet Boy".

“ *Happy Birthday Truff Truff,
Thank you for making my sister Jacque's life pleasant. Although since you've been gone it has not been the same since then. You were so special not only to her but to everyone that came in contact with you. I miss seeing you outside with your raincoat on (Bougie self). It's a wonder you didn't have an umbrella attached to your coat. You will truly be missed. We will never forget you!

“ There is no words to express the sadness that my family and I feel for the loss of Truffles.His family took very good care of him from the first day he came into their lives until he took his very last breath.Truffles knew that he was so loved so much so that “he didn’t even know that he was a dog”. He Thought that he was a human 😭 . Truffles was also loved by all of his Extended family members. We will all miss him. We’ll miss seeing him in his rain clothes, his summer ,Winter ,spring and fall clothes. He was so beautiful in his little clothes. and smart. He will be Truly missed. We love you Truffles. Rest now.
